In no event shall Children’s Health Foundation be liable for loss of profits, revenue, use, or data whether brought in contract or tort, arising out of or connected with any Children’s Health Foundation web site or the use, reliance upon or performance of any material contained in or accessed from the Children's Health Foundation web site.

Link Disclaimer

We provide links to web sites operated by other parties. The links are provided for your convenience only. The presence of a link does not imply any endorsement of the material on the web sites or any association with the web site's operators. We do not operate, control or endorse any information, products or services provided by third parties through the internet. We are not responsible for the content and performance of these sites. Use of linked sites is strictly at your own risk including any risks associated with destructive viruses.

Information Provided to Children's Health Foundation via the internet

Do not send Children’s Health Foundation any confidential or proprietary information. Any feedback, data, answers, questions, comments, suggestions, ideas, or the like which you send to Children's Health Foundation will be treated as being non-confidential and nonproprietary, and you agree that any such information you choose to provide may be reproduced, used, and distributed by Children’s Health Foundation for any purpose without restriction.

Endorsements

All product and service marks contained herein that are not Children’s Health Foundation marks are the trademarks of their respective owners. References that we may make to any names, marks, products or services of third parties or hypertext links to third party sites or information do not necessarily constitute or imply Children’s Health Foundation endorsement, sponsorship, or recommendation of the third party, information, product, or service.

Privacy Policy

This is how Children's Health Foundation will handle information learned about you from your visit to our web site. The information Children’s Health Foundation receives depends upon what you do when visiting our site. For each visitor to the web site, the Children’s Health Foundation web server automatically recognizes the consumer's domain name and email address (where possible).

Children’s Health Foundation collects the domain name and email address (where possible) of visitors to our web site, aggregate information on what pages consumers access or visit, user-specific information on what pages consumers access or visit and information volunteered by the consumer, such as survey information and/or site registrations. Children’s Health Foundation collects this information by using "cookies," which are small files stored on your computer's hard drive. Cookies are text information files that your web browser places on your computer when you visit a web site. Most browsers accept cookies automatically but can be configured not to accept them or to indicate when a cookie is being sent.

The information Children’s Health Foundation collects is used to improve the content of the web site, used to customize the content and/or layout of our page for each individual user. If you do not want to receive email from Children’s Health Foundation in the future, please send an email to Webmaster, and indicate you do not want to receive email from the institution.

You also may decide to send Children’s Health Foundation personally identifying information, for example, in an electronic mail message or by voluntarily disclosing that information by completing an online survey. Children’s Health Foundation may use personally identifying information from you to respond to your inquiries or for other internal business purposes. This information will not be sold or rented to third parties. You should be aware, however, that others may access such information and use it, though any such use would be without the consent of Children’s Health Foundation. Children's Health Foundation will not obtain personally identifying information about you when you visit our site, unless you choose to provide such information.

The Children's Health Foundation web site is managed in the State of Oregon, United States of America. Children's Health Foundation makes no representation that materials found at the site is appropriate or available for use in other locations. If you access the Children’s Health Foundation site from other locations, you are responsible for compliance with local laws.
